CLASS OF '72

The Class of '72 has been known to do the unexpected. Take, for instance, the magazine campaign in ninth grade. Although nobody came right out and said what was expected of us, we sure surprised everyone when we came out $3,000 short of our goal. We regained some of our status when the Christmas dance was over. Most Christmas dances have been known to lose money, and ours was no different except we didn't lose much. Then came our Junior year and our great Junior Class Play. "Headin' for the Hills" broke all records! We had the play two nights with a dance following the Saturday evening performance. We cleared $1400 altogether. Not bad, huh? Two months after the Play was the Prom. Because of the play, we were well off financially, so no one had to pay to get into the Prom. During our Senior year, our major project was the Senior Class Play. "Web of Murder" proved to be one of the funniest dramas Township has ever put on and, needless to say, it, too, was a success.

Even though they said it couldn't be done, we did it and we're proud of it.

A Look at Yesterday

In Memory—Ellen Manges

She is not dead—but gone away-
While her memory lingers on.
And someday we'll be joined again
By the eternal hand of God.

While on the path of life she walked-
She went a different way.
She is not dead, but found the road-
To happiness always.

She didn't die, but lives today
In hearts she left behind-
We see her in the things she loved
She reigns within our minds.

TO SENIORS:

The goal of helping each individual achieve his unique character is indeed one of great proportions. None but a free and responsible people working toward a magnificent destiny would attempt it. It is the schools of this land which must largely assume the responsibility for pursuing and developing the special talent and character of each individual.

Education should prepare people not just to earn a living, but to live a life—a creative, humane, and sensitive life. It is my hope that the graduates of 1972 have received this kind of preparation from our schools.

May happiness and success crown all of your efforts and may God bless you.

John Chobany
District Superintendent

DEGREES: B.S.—Indiana University of Pennsylvania
M.Ed.—University of Pittsburgh
Graduate Work—University of Pittsburgh

TO THE CLASS OF 1972:

In these pages of the CONNUMACH you will relive many of your precious hours at Conemaugh Township, hours that passed swiftly as you were busily engaged in building a foundation for your future. It is my hope that this foundation will enable you to fulfill yourself by playing a responsible role in advancing the general well-being of all people.

I wish you happiness in all of your future endeavors.

James L. Herdman
High School Principal

DEGREES: B.S.—Pennsylvania State University
M.Ed.—Lehigh University
Graduate Work—Lafayette College,
Lehigh University and University of Pittsburgh

The school board members (from left): Wayne A. Kauffman, Dr. Donald Stover, Vice President Charles W. Salay, John P. K. Miller, III, Lowell D. Shaffer, Richard D. Slick, President George W. Shuman, Jr., Edwin Goddard, Treasurer Donald J. Lohr.

If you are looking for the business manager and school board secretary, you go to the business office and there she is, Mrs. Ruth Keim (left). Should you go to the business office and Mrs. Keim is not there, Mrs. Nancy Golish (right), Mrs. Keim's right-hand girl, will be there.

Phys. Ed.

Our seventh and eighth grade music teacher, choir and chorus director, BLANCHE SHAFFER, earned a B.A. degree at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music. An instructor at the reservation for 34 years, Miss Shaffer's hobbies are travelling, knitting, and embroidering.

Music

A graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. degree, JOHN SALAY, JR., conducts marching band, concert band, and orchestra. He received his M.A. degree from Columbia University and now has forty hours completed at American University (France).

Our senior high homemaking teacher, MRS. BETTY GOOD, graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. and earned graduate credits at Penn State University.

Home Ec.

RACHEL HARGREAVES, our junior high homemaking instructor, received her B.S. degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She lists her hobbies as her three children.

Secretaries

"Can I quit smiling now?" MARGARET THOMAS is an Office Secretary and MR. HERDMAN'S right hand woman. Mrs. Thomas has been faithfully serving our school for 18 years.

"I hope we soon find someone to replace Mr. Bulazo." LOIS WILLIAMSON serves as an Office Secretary and assistant principal? She's still on secretaries' wages, though. Miss Williamson has assumed some of Mr. Bulazo's responsibilities.

"Another schedule, another dollar." JEAN GINDLESPIERGER, secretary to Mr. Brown and Mr. Beckley, has proven infallible with her services.

Office Staff

MISS LUCY CORTESE, tax collector, slaves diligently to keep all the records straight.

MISS JOANNE TEMYER, secretary to Mr. Chobany, keeps smiling no matter how much paper work there is to be done.

Cafeteria Staff

CAFETERIA STAFF: (Seated) Mrs. Thelma Weible, Mrs. Verna Temyer, Manager Mrs. Mary Blough, Head Cook Mrs. Caroline Anderson. (Standing) Mrs. Luella Speicher, Mrs. Edna Kaufman, Mrs. Gloria Smith, Mrs. Mini Barkley, Mrs. Edna Naugle, Mrs. Mary Strucky.

In Memoriam and Appreciation

The thoughtful services and friendly spirit of Mr. Robert Fasola ("Mose") will be long-remembered by those who have learned to know him as a real friend. Beneath a brusque exterior manner there was a kind heart; he could be said to personify Lincoln's famous words: "With malice toward none; with charity for all." His pleasant, practical attitudes towards life have given many a C.T.A.H.S. pupil the desire to continue his education and preparation for a worthwhile future. He kept in touch with numerous graduates through correspondence and mailing of the CONTOWNIAN and programs, even sponsoring social events at his home for college students at vacation periods. Former pupils will miss these important links with their homes, school and community.

Since "Mose" worked after regular school hours, not all pupils have had the opportunity of learning to know him. Those who have, however, know his willingness to listen to their problems, his wise advice, and his concern about everyone. The choir members will remember his annual banquets for them as the P.O. staff will recall the ever-present candy for their refreshment. His influence in the daily lives of all has been evidenced in the cleanliness and neatness of the second floor rooms for which he was responsible. "Mose" created the atmosphere necessary for successful teaching and learning by always being concerned about the appearance and maintenance of "his" rooms. We, then, in his memory should dedicate ourselves to continuing this concern so that our school will always present a favorable impression to all who use or visit it.

To the CONNUMACH staffs from 1961 to the present, "Mose" was an interested and alert semi-official advisor. He provided the facilities required for the specialized activities of a yearbook staff, encouraged members to keep working to meet deadlines and offered many helpful hints. These contributions have meant much to all associated with yearbook production, so it is with a deep sense of loss that this page is added to the 1972 CONNUMACH in memory, as well as in appreciation, of Mr. Robert Fasola.

DEPARTMENTS

You are getting sleepy . . . sleepy . . .
sleepy . . .

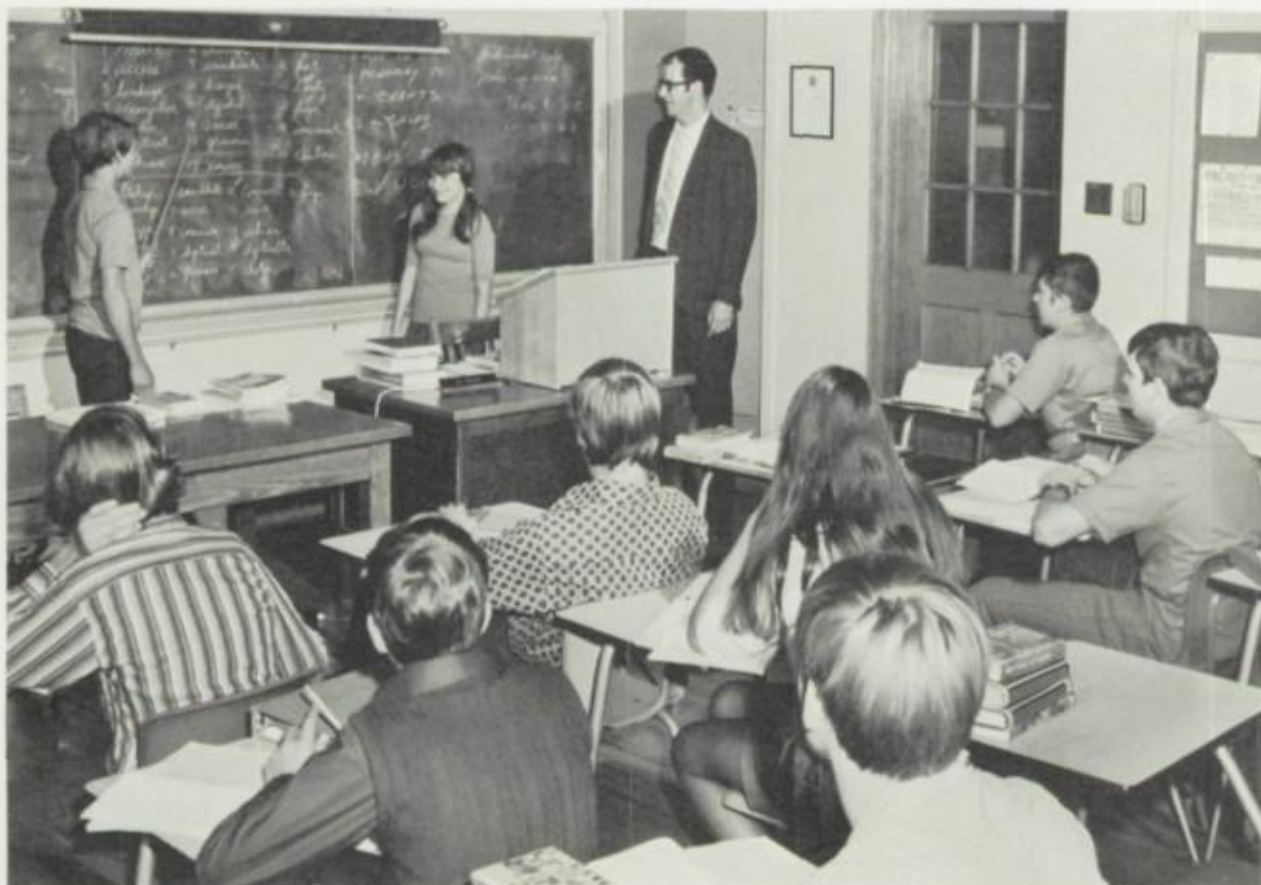

You kids are really crazy!

Language

Too many teachers spoil the students!

That's wrong, Mr. Vizzini, try again!

Department

And then there's the one about . . .

Busy, busy, busy.

What an exciting English class!

"I'm watching you out of the corner of my eye!"

Somebody's getting brownie points.

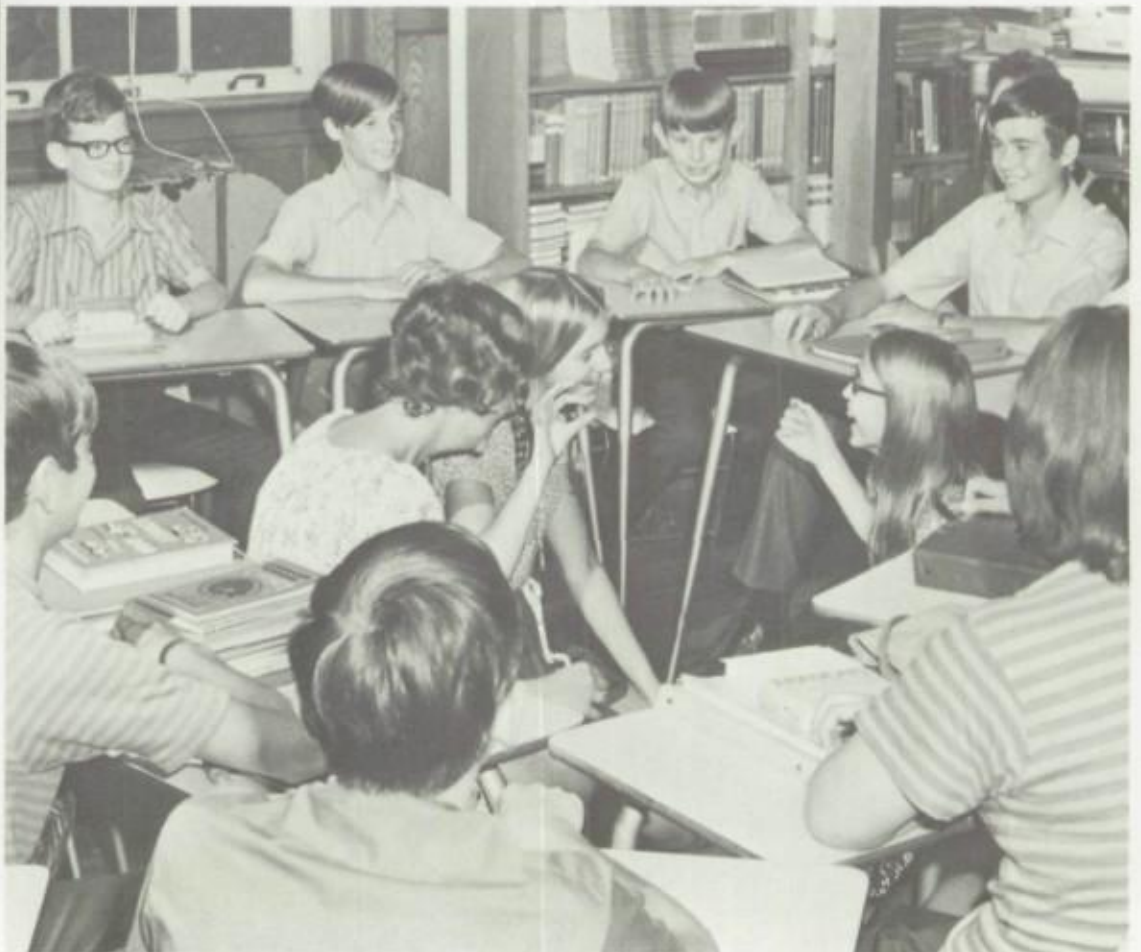

"Parlez-vous français?"

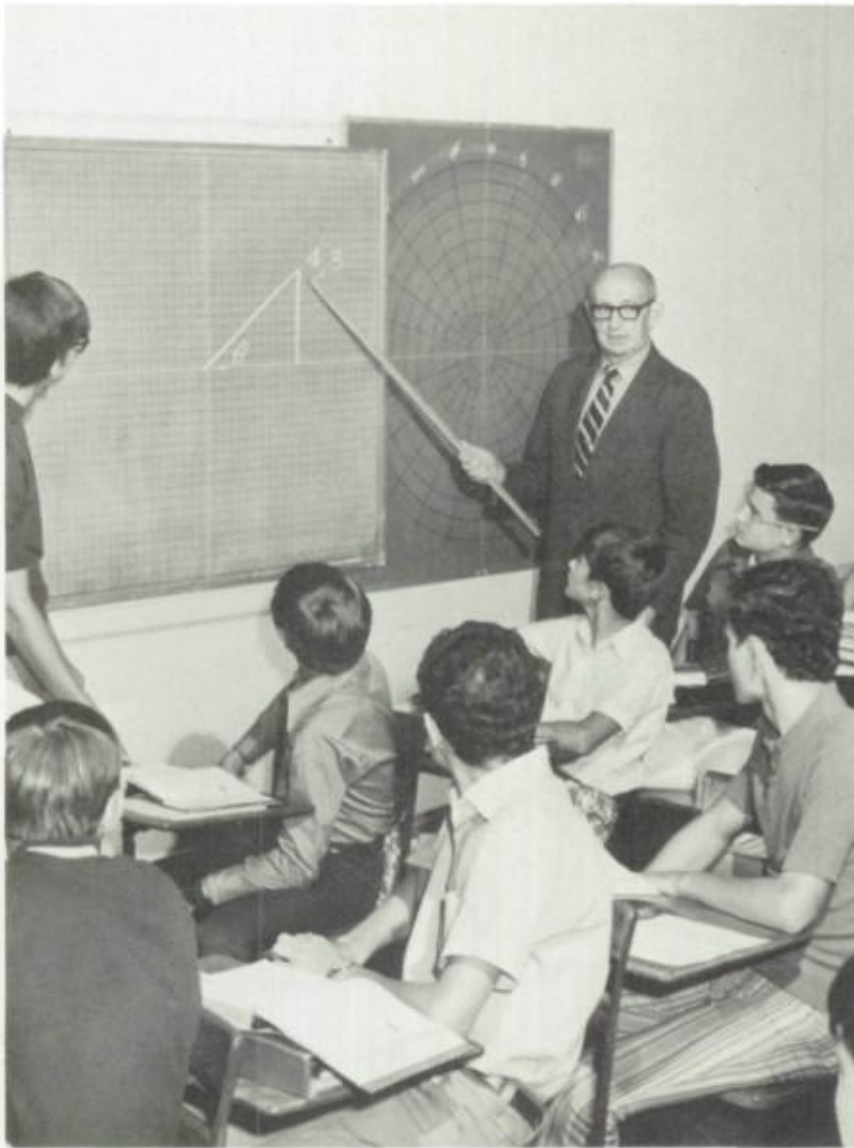

Drop in on Mrs. McFeaters' French class someday and maybe she'll let you play "Little Sally Ann."

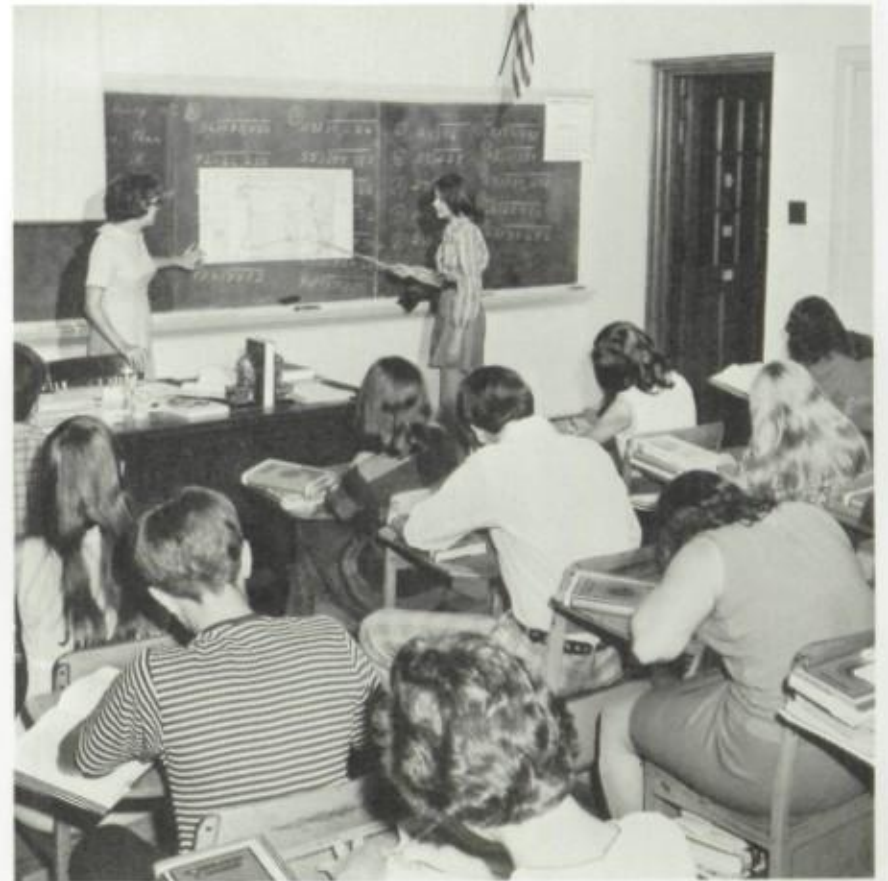

"Would the first contestant enter and sign in, please."

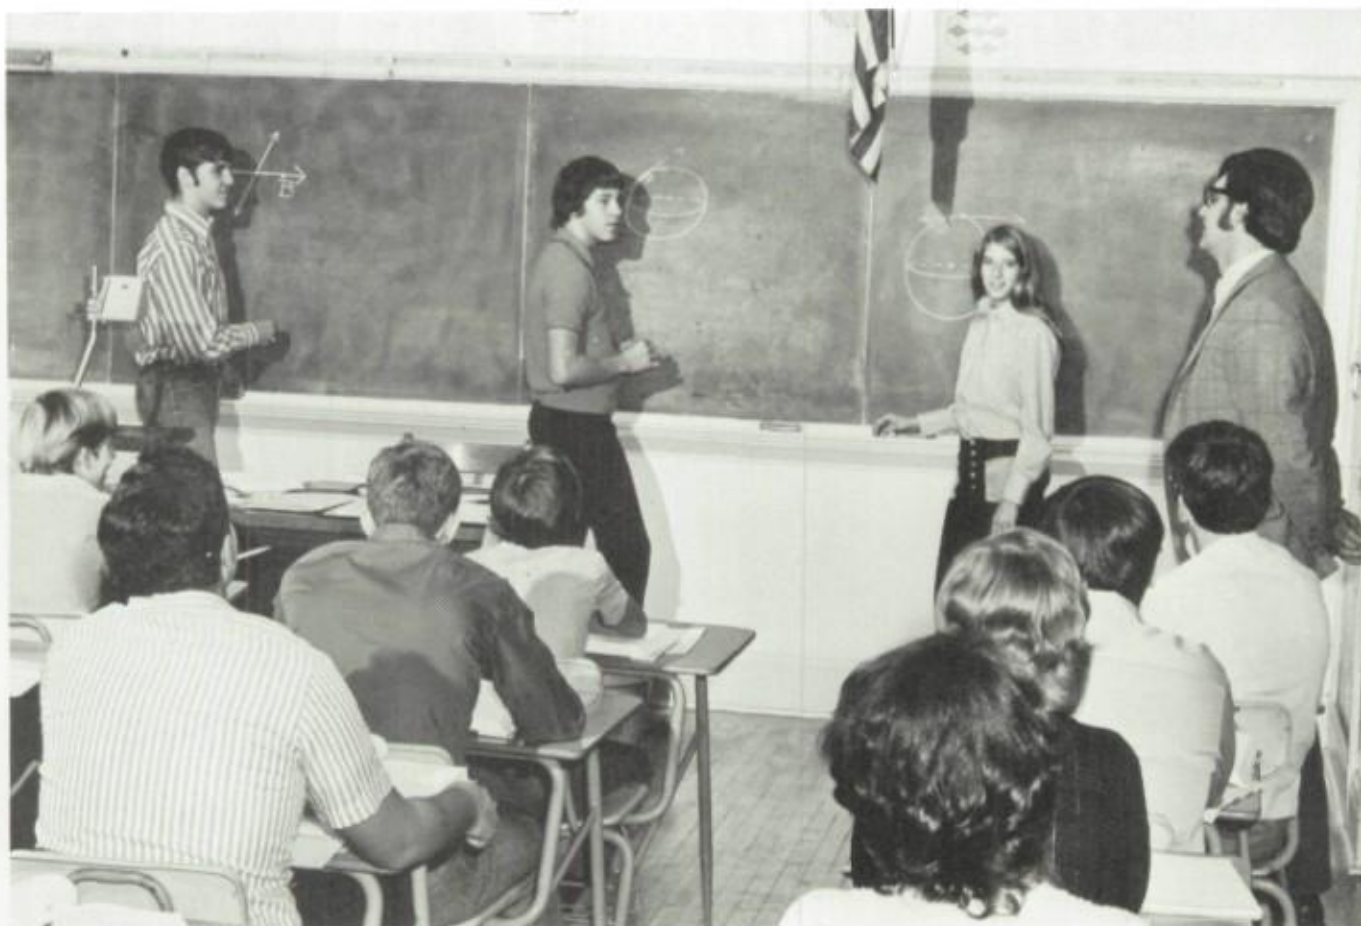

"Now, this line goes up and here it goes down."

"We live in the south-eastern corner of the second blackboard right in the heart of the division problems."

Math

"But, Mr. Debiase, it's hard for us squares to make circles."

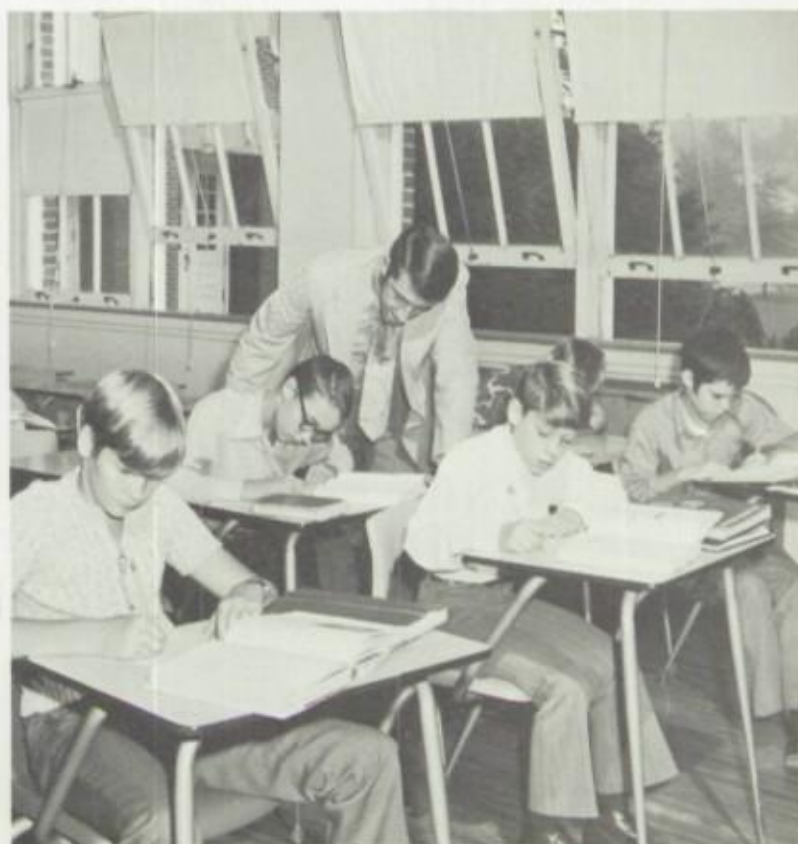

"All right, I'll call on one of you as soon as I find the answer."

Department

"Please, don't breathe on my neck."

"Well, well, well."

"Another day at the old grind."

"These take the place of the brain in many students."

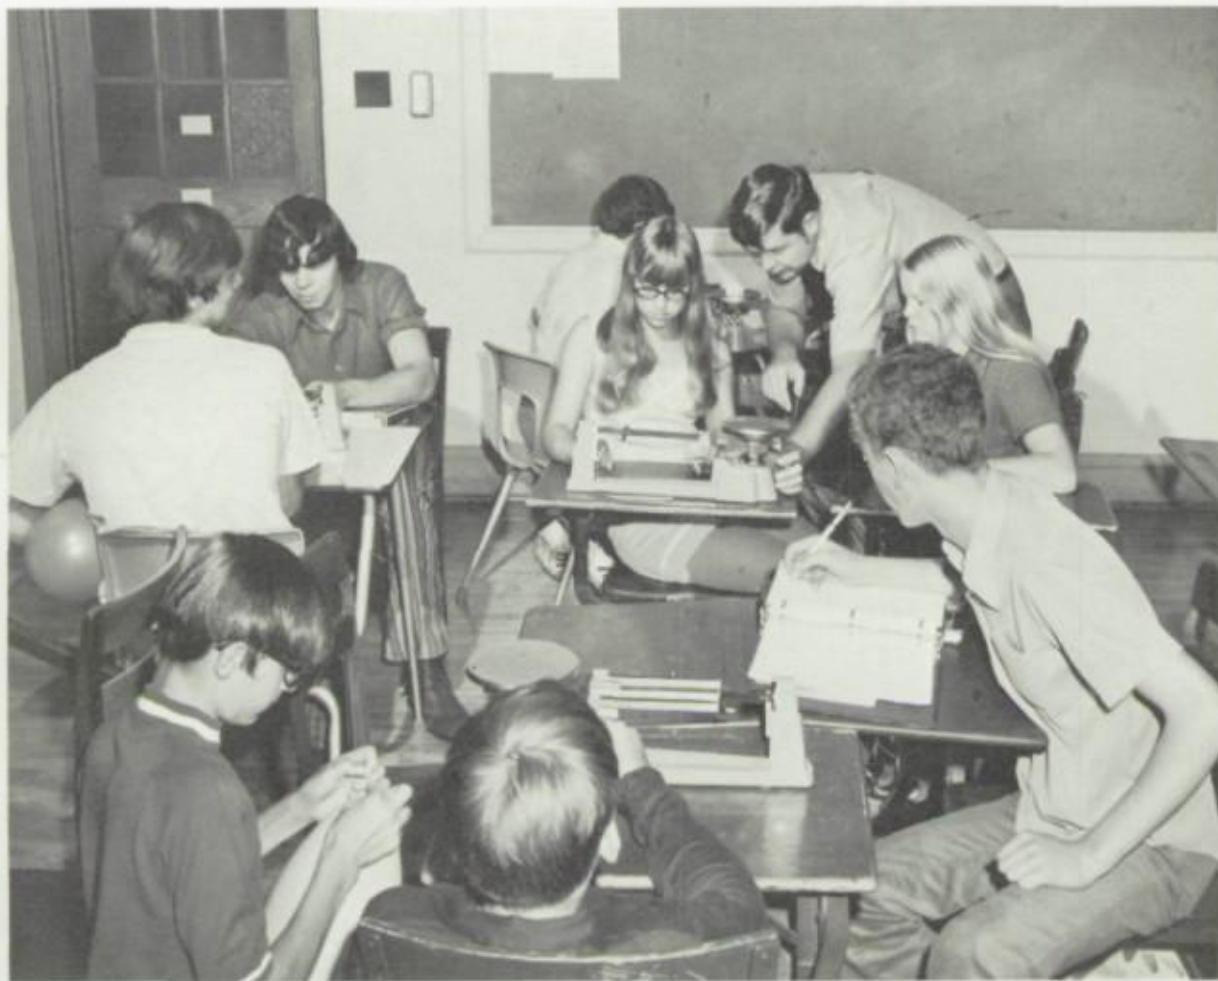

"You wouldn't believe the composition of this piece of chalk."

Science

"The first annual meeting of the Biological Sewing Society will now come to order."

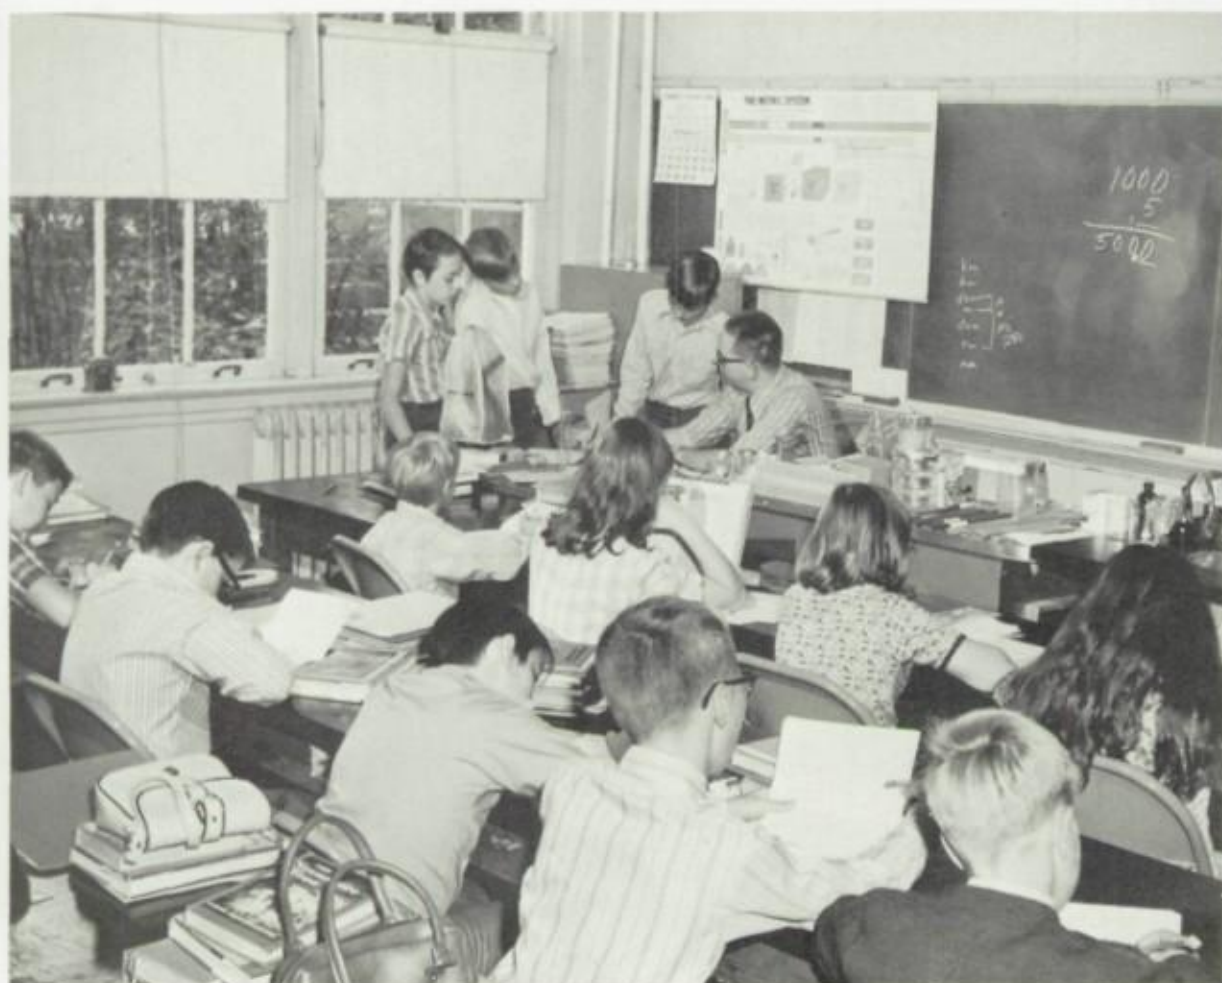

"It worked for me yesterday"!

Department

The chosen few

"Yes, there are two sexes."

"Very good Dean, now try to think of one yourself."

Social

"No, India isn't located in South America."

"Just another short 100-point quiz, which Mr. Horne enjoys."

"Trina, the answer is right here in front of your nose."

Studies

"That is right where I live."

"Say something! Has the cat got your tongue?"

"So, you're the one!"

"Not again."

"You've got to put the lid on before you can start, Kathy."

"Boy, typing is fun!"

Business Department

"You're doing pretty well with only one finger, Denise!"

"But Mr. Volk . . . This isn't my paper!"

"What do you mean it doesn't make any sense?" Mr. Kososki instructs the Little Indians in the wonderful world of art.

Art and Industrial Arts

"Put that book away. You know this is shop class." Mr. McFeaters teaches our Jr. High shop classes.

"That was supposed to have been a STRAIGHT line." Mr. Kimmel helps his drafting students.

"And a one and a two."

"Naugle did it!"

*Odds
'n*

"And they thought Hostetler was a good quarterback!"

"I'd rather do it myself!"

"Should I tell her she forgot the material?"

Ends

"This is a baby!"

ACTIVITIES

Connumach Staffs

Assistant Editor Ruth Ann Cable and Editor-in-Chief Debbie Villa look over some material for the 1972 edition of the CONNUMACH.

Mrs. Statler, Mr. Kososki, Miss Romano, Miss Will and Mr. Volk are the CONNUMACH advisors.

The Editors are having fun and games now, but tomorrow when 50 unfinished mats are due, they won't have such big smiles on their faces.

The Business Staff consists of many students who helped finance the yearbook. Their advisor is Mr. Volk. Co-Managers are Carla Massimo and Janis McClelland.

All the art work in the yearbook is done by our three-man Art Staff (Would you believe 1 guy and 2 gals?) Pat Kapitan, Editor Mary Ann Golden, and Dave Smith.

This active-looking group is the Departments Staff. They take care of all classroom pictures and include (from left): Hattie Spory, Editor Paul Keim, Debby Saylor.

The capable Editor-in-chief of the CONTOWNIAN, Sharon McCloskey, gets expert advice from the newspaper's advisor, Mr. Paxton.

Contownian Staffs

"Two Telenko's are too much for any organization." Exchange editor, Deb Telenko, and her "staff," Donna Telenko, work together to get the CONTOWNIAN to other schools.

"What happened to male dominance?"

Art editor, Mary Ann Golden, and Dick Kimmel do the funnies and various other creations throughout the CONTOWNIAN.

"The CONTOWNIAN typing staff, Jane Gindlesperger, Connie Kauffman, Carla Massimo, Janis McClelland, Editor—Connie Cotchen, and Judie Noble, always manage to delay the sports page week after week."

"Being on the Feature staff can't be that funny, Jeanne." Staff members are Mary Lu Lint, Editor—Kathy Ringgold, Jeanne Hersh, and Pam Maggs.

"Sports is always in a frenzi." CONTOWNIAN sports staff members include Wayne Thomas, Editor—Dave Mishler, Scott Berkley, Mark Sotosky, and Barry Saylor.

"If I've told you once, I've told you 1,001 times, I'm the editor." The news staffers are Jolene Youhouse, Lillian Lehman, Leah Custer, Joe Morelli, and, Editor—Rita Walker.

Sr. Class Makes Plays Tops

Debbie Villa and Pam Naugle were the brilliant Student Directors for the Junior and Senior Class Play.

Susan Woy and Susan Keim sang duets between the acts of the Senior Class Play.

Hanging one of their members from the balcony are the Senior Football Players who contributed their melodious voices between acts for the Junior High Matinee performance.

There were 31 members in the cast of HEADIN' FOR THE HILLS with the main parts going to Dave Mishler, Karen Shoff, Hattie Spory, John Dayoob, and Alan Tresnicky. The play ran for 2 nights, March 19 and 20, with a dance following the Saturday evening performance. Directors were Miss Romano and Mr. Salko, and student directors were Pam Naugle and Debbie Villa. Everyone put in a lot of time and effort to make the play a success, but it wasn't all work. Like the time Kathy was going to "jump", and every time Patty and Deb had any lines. The hardest part of all was trying not to disintegrate into laughter every time Tucker opened his mouth.

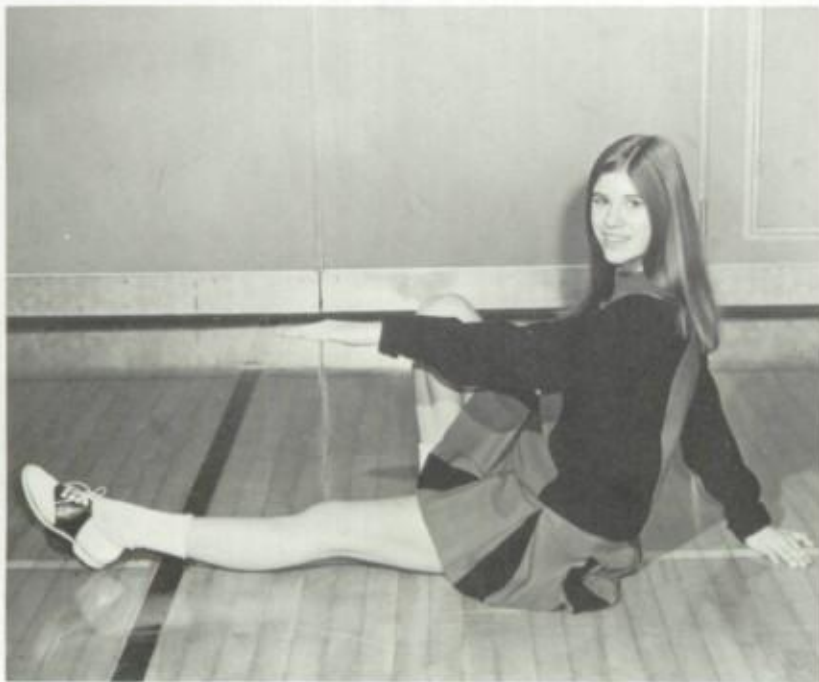

The Class of '72 Senior Class Play was entitled "WEB OF MURDER". It was held on the evening of November 13, 1971, with a dance in the gym following the play. The nine-member cast was under the direction of Miss Romano and Mr. Salko. Student directors were Pam Naugle and Deb Villa. Memories: — Tucker on the chair, Kathy's dance, Bick's death, "It's a gift," love scene, SLEEP, wheel chair, the murderess, and picking up the teapot by the spout.
